

SAMA CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

The South African Medical Association NPC (SAMA) is seeking nominees for the company's Board of Directors - both self-nominations and nominations of your colleagues are enthusiastically welcomed. Being a board member gives you the opportunity to expand your professional network and be an advocate for the medical profession!

SAMA has four (4) non-executive director vacancies on the Board of Directors. All directors contribute to the overall success, governance, and compliance of SAMA. One of the key objectives of this nomination process is to create a Board that consists of members who contribute actively to its functioning. Areas of address that Directors are required to support include policy and governance, member recruitment and retention, and financial oversight. The successful candidates would be required to be strategically engaged but not operationally active.

We are eager to see representation on the Board that reflects the diversity of our membership, which includes individuals from each province and to open the space to a diversity of voices and perspectives.

ELIGIBILITY OF NOMINEES

Nominees should meet the following minimum qualification criteria:

- Be a voting SAMA member in good standing
- Have at least three (3) years post qualification experience
- Have served on any Branch or Committee of SAMA for at least three (3) years

ADDITIONAL DESIRABLE EXPERIENCE AND BACKGROUND:

- Demonstrate a detailed knowledge of the health care sector.
- Have additional experience in other industries which can be used to benefit SAMA and the interests of the members.
- SAMA strives to have a Board that is representative of its members and accordingly preference may be given to certain candidates who increase the Board's diversity, knowledge, and skill.
